Summary

As an IT student, I am enthusiastic about technology and learning. My coursework has focused on programming languages like HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, Python, providing me with a foundation in Web development. I have hands-on experience in creating dynamic and responsive websites. While I may not have professional experience, I am a quick learner with strong problem-solving abilities. I am eager to apply my academic knowledge and passion for technology in a practical setting. Open to new challenges, I am ready to contribute to a dynamic IT team and continue expanding my skills.
